What are my obligations?

You have a legal duty to answer all questions asked by us in connection with your application for insurance honestly and with reasonable care. You must also ensure that any information voluntarily provided by you or on your behalf is provided honestly and with reasonable care.

Failure to comply with these requirements and/or any negligent or fraudulent misrepresentation could invalidate your Policy or affect your insurance cover or premium. It could also result in a claim being declined or the amount payable in respect of a claim being reduced or difficulty obtaining insurance in the future. Further information is provided in the Policy Booklet.

You must also (as more fully set out in the Policy Booklet):

- Check your policy documentation when you receive it to make sure you have the cover you need and expect.
- Take reasonable steps to safeguard the vehicle against loss, damage and breakdown and to prevent injuries.
- Pay the premium or premium instalments on time.
- Tell us about any incidents connected to this insurance as soon as reasonably practicable (but no later than 30 days from the date of the event).
- Provide all information and assistance that we may require in relation to a claim being made.
- Tell us if any of the information you provided before policy cover commenced or renewed subsequently changes.

When and how do I pay?

You can pay your premium in a single sum or speak to your insurance broker about instalment options.

When does the cover start and end?

Your cover will start and end on the dates are stated on your policy schedule and certificate of insurance.

How do I cancel the contract?

If you decide for any reason that the policy does not meet your needs you may cancel the policy within 14 working days from the start date of cover (the "Cooling-off Period"). Provided that no claims have been made or are pending, the premium for the unexpired term will be returned to you and no cancellation fee will apply.

If you cancel after this period you will be entitled to a pro-rata return of premium unless a claim has been made in which case we will retain the premium in full. If cancellation is at your request and during the first period of insurance (outside the 'Cooling-off Period') an administration charge will be deducted from any refund allowed. You can cancel your policy at any time by writing to us. We will cancel the policy on the date we receive your request in writing along with your certificate and disc.
