Effect of Continuing Restrictive Conditions

In this Policy, any term that imposes a Continuing Restrictive Condition, including one that is intended to reduce the risk of a particular type of loss, or reduce the risk of loss occurring at a particular time or in a particular location, shall be treated as a suspensive condition. This means that if:

- a) you breach any such term; and
- b) during the period of breach you suffer a relevant loss; and
- c) such breach increased, in the circumstances concerned, the risk of the loss suffered by you, we will have no liability for the loss.

- b) Other than where expressly provided in this Policy, your compliance with the terms, limitations, Exceptions, Conditions and Endorsements of this Policy shall be a condition precedent to any liability on our behalf to make any payment under the Policy.
- c) Breach of any notification-related term or Condition will entitle us to refuse payment of a claim where we were prejudiced by the breach of the notification-related term or Condition in question.

Change to Policy Details

- the information provided in any application or Proposal Form or otherwise in response to specific questions asked by us; and/or

Fraudulent claims

If a claim contains information that is false or misleading in any material respect and you either know that it is false or misleading or consciously disregard whether it is false or misleading, or a claim is otherwise fraudulent in any respect, ("Fraudulent Claim"), we shall be entitled to:

- a) refuse to pay the claim; and
